

CHRIS DURLACHER

Represented by Moray Coulter at Stern & Wild 07813 877268 moray@sternwild.com

Credits as Producer/Director

2022 THE PEOPLE'S PIAZZA – A HISTORY OF COVENT GARDEN

A feature length documentary for BBC/Storyfutures about the present and past of one of London's most iconic spaces.

2022 THATCHER & REAGAN – A VERY SPECIAL RELATIONSHIP

A two part series for BBC2 in which journalist and Thatcher biographer Charles Moore explores her close political and personal relationship with Ronald Reagan.

2021 CHURCHILL

A six part archive-based cradle-to-grave biography of Britain's wartime leader that balances historical rigour and new attitudes to our past. For Channel 5.

2020 PETER: THE HUMAN CYBORG

A one-off documentary for Channel 4 that follows robotics scientist Peter Scott-Morgan, who had Motor Neurone Disease and used technology to replace his failing body – becoming part human part machine.

2019 THE MASSACRE THAT SHOOK THE EMPIRE

A documentary for Channel 4 following writer Sathnam Sangera as he investigates the Amritsar Massacre and comes to a new understanding about the British Empire.

2018 WW1 – THE FINAL HOURS

A documentary for BBC2 about the three days of negotiations that ended the conflict on the Western Front at 11 am on 11th November 1918.

2018 THE STOLEN MAHARAJAH

An hour long documentary for BBC4 about the Maharajah Duleep Singh, who lost his kingdom and control of his life to the British Empire.

2017 ELIZABETH I'S SECRET AGENTS

A series for BBC2/WGBH about the father and son team who were the power behind the throne of the Virgin Queen. It dissects epic moments in British history and delves inside the minds of the people caught up in these great events.

Winner, Royal Television Society Awards

Nominated, BAFTA

2016 BORN ON THE SAME DAY

A series for Channel 4 about three people born on the same day. In this opening episode there's a woman marked by childhood trauma, a Jamaican immigrant and the world's greatest explorer.

2015 THE TRAINER AND THE RACEHORSE – THE LEGEND OF FRANKEL

The moving story of the champion racehorse Frankel and his dying trainer, Henry Cecil. As someone said, not just an extraordinary sporting story, an extraordinary life story. For Channel 4.

2014 HITLER'S HIDDEN DRUG HABIT

A lively expose which details some of the more than seventy different medical treatments Hitler took whilst he was Fuhrer of Nazi Germany. For Channel 4/Nat Geo

Winner, Best international Documentary, RTS NI

2014 HIDDEN HISTORIES – BRITAIN’S OLDEST FAMILY BUSINESSES

A three part documentary series for BBC4 about three of Britain’s oldest family businesses.

2013 MURDER ON THE VICTORIAN RAILWAY

A drama-doc for BBC2 which uses testimony from a famous Victorian murder to bring the past back to life on screen.

2012 THE SECRET LIFE OF RUBBISH

A two part series for BBC4 that uses tales from the bin men to reveal how our lives became so wasteful. A lively and informative look up the back-end of modern Britain.

Winner, Focal International Awards

Nominated, Royal Television Society, Southern Awards

2012 THE SECRETS OF OUR STREETS – ARNOLD CIRCUS

The last episode in the acclaimed BBC series that uses Charles Booth’s maps of social class in nineteenth century London as a launchpad for a social history of a single streets. This programme tells the story of Arnold Circus - a Victorian social experiment.

Winner, Royal Television Society Awards

Winner, Grierson Audience Award

Nominated, Broadcast Award

Nominated, BAFTA

Nominated, Press Guild Awards

2011 THE DOCUMENTARY FILM MOB

BBC documentary about the origins of documentary in Britain and the small band of artists and filmmakers who gathered around John Grierson, during the 1930s and 40s.

2010 MY FATHER THE BOMB AND ME

BBC documentary following the historian Lisa Jardine as she turns detective on her father, Jacob Bronowski, who, as a government scientist had been one of the first people to visit Hiroshima after the Bomb exploded there.

2009 BRITAIN’S AFRICAN EMPEROR

Septimius Severus was a Libyan who became Emperor of Rome and then invaded northern Britain. This epic tale is revealed through archaeological remains and brought to life with animation. It was broadcast on Channel 4 and still available on Amazon Prime.

2008/9 THE VIOLENT HIGHWAY

BBC documentary that uses animation to reveal British violence through the three hundred year history of one particularly disordered street.

Winner, British Animation Awards

Selected for Creative Review Annual

2008 THE UNDERCOVER DIPLOMAT

BBC documentary about Jonathan Powell’s secret work as Tony Blair’s chief negotiator in the Northern Ireland peace process.

2006/7 THE YELLOW HOUSE

One-off drama about the friendship between Vincent van Gogh and Paul Gauguin. Made for Channel 4, it was written by Simon Bent and stars John Simm & John Lynch.

2006 THE HAUNTED AIRMAN

Writer/Director/producer of this adaptation of a Dennis Wheatley horror story. Made for BBC4, starring Robert Pattinson, Julian Sands & Rachael Stirling.

2004-5 IN PRAISE OF HARDCORE

Writer/Director of this biopic of Ken Tynan for BBC. Starring Rob Brydon as Ken Tynan, Julian Sands & Catherine McCormack.

Shortlisted, Grierson Award

2003 GEORGE ORWELL: A LIFE IN PICTURES

Writer/Director/Producer of this 90 minute drama-doc biopic. Made for BBC2 and starring Chris Langham as Orwell.

Winner, EMMY award

Winner, Grierson Award

Winner, New York Film Festival

Nominated, Royal Television Society Awards

Nominated, BANFF TV Festival Award

Nominated for three BAFTA Craft Awards

Mencao Honrosa, Famalicao Int'l Film & Video Festival, Portugal

2002 THE REAL CAPTAIN BLIGH

Channel 4 drama-doc telling the true story of William Bligh and the mutiny on the Bounty.

2001 THE RIDDLE OF THE TOWER

Documentary for Channel 4/WGBH on the scientists trying to save the Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Winner, Best Science Film, Maremma Int. Documentary Festival

2001 THE REAL EDWARD VII

Biopic for Channel 4 on Edward VII's fraught relationship with his mother, Queen Victoria.

2000 SNOWBALL EARTH

Horizon documentary for BBC about geologists hunting down the evidence to prove the radical idea that the entire Earth was once a giant ball of ice.

Winner, Best Documentary, Parma Science and Ecology Film Festival

2000 ESCAPE FROM COLDITZ

Documentary about the famous prisoner of war camp made for Channel 4. Some of those of who got out are taken back in to explain how they did it.

Nominated, Grierson Award

Nominated, Indie Awards

1999 THE LONG LIE

Short film about the lonely death of an old man, which achieved a UK cinema distribution.

1999 WHAT SHALL WE DO WITH THE MOON?

Documentary made for Channel 4. A light-hearted look at plans to develop the moon.

1998 DAWN OF THE DEATH RAY

Documentary made for Channel 4 exposing the US military's fascination with sci-fi weaponry.

1995- 97 THE CLASSICS

Three series of popular oral history films made for Channel 4 covering a range of stories from the dream of suburbia to a family rift that revolutionised British trucking.

1994 WHITE HEAT

BBC series made about the history of humanity's relationship with our technologies.

1993 SUPER!MARKETS

Documentary made for Channel 4 about why Britons love supermarkets.

1992 INSIDE THE BOX

Short documentary made for BBC about Renaissance artists.

Credits as Executive Producer

2011 TALES FROM THE NATIONAL PARKS

A series of three documentaries, for BBC4, each set in a different British National Park.

2011 THE CAMERA THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

BBC documentary about the invention of the handheld 16mm film camera and how that changed the nature of documentary filmmaking.

Winner, Focal International Awards

Nominated, Grierson Award

2010 BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE MUSEUM

A series of three observational documentaries for the BBC about the goings on in three small museums around Britain.

Winner, Royal Television Society, North West Awards.